Catarrh is now known to be caused by disease germs and it may be cured only by an antiseptic treatment that will kill the catarrh germs and soothe and heal the irritated mucous membrane.

Nothing else combines the soothing and antiseptic powers in as perfect a degree as Mentholatum. Apply a little of this in the nasal passages on going to bed and it cures while you sleep. Then apply again in the morning and its curative and healing effect acts all day long. A jar of Mentholatum costs only a trifle, 25 cents, and is sold by druggists everywhere under guarantee of money back if it fails to do all that is claimed for it. It is a wonderful household remedy and is good for all inflammation, soreness, aches and pains.

CHARLES E. RUSSELL COMING.

Noted Magazine Writer to Appear as the First Socialist Lecturer.

The opportunity to hear Charles Edward Russell speak on the subject, "How We Are Cloned," the initial lecture in the course of the national Socialist youth bureau, is one to be seized with rosin on the hands. In the first place, there is probably not another man in the United States with so definite a knowledge of how the going is done by the interests—"how" in the sense of the process and also in the sense of the extent and degree.

While the magazines were permitted by the great banking powers and the non-advertising industries to let daylight into the mysteries of high finance, Mr. Russell was easily first among the muck rakers. He knows. He understands. Then he has a style which is at once beautifully literary and beautifully clear. "It is perfectly wonderful," says Eugene Wood, the well-known author, "how he can hold an audience in breathless stillness. Every word is like carved ivory, so clearly is it articulated. Whether he speaks to a crowd in some village, or to a New York audience filling Carnegie Music hall to the topmost gallery, every word carries on an even, lovely voice—without ranting without flub-dub or oratorical fireworks. He is the kind of man that makes you listen till your neck aches." Mr. Russell's lecture is the first of five given under the auspices of the local Socialist party. The lecturers are toured under the management of the national Socialist party. Mr. Russell's appearance will be at the Congregational church on January 9.
